

European Network of Living Labs

ENoLL Membership Application Guidelines

Wave 2020 (14th)

Empowering Everyone to Innovate

The European Network of Living Labs (ENoLL) is a community aiming to promote and enhance user-driven innovation ecosystems, more precisely the Living Labs concept globally.

ENoLL Living Labs are user-driven, open innovation ecosystems based on a systematic user co-creation approach integrating research and innovation processes in real life communities and settings.

ENoLL Living Labs place the citizen at the center of innovation where they are fully integrated within the co-creation process of new services, products and societal infrastructure.

ENoLL counts today with 180 active members worldwide (450+ historically recognized Living Labs over 10 years), including in 22 of the 27 EU Member States, and with 20% of members based outside of the European Union.

We warmly invite you to submit your application to join our every growing community of innovation actors.

From test-beds for internationalizing SMEs, to long-term public sector guidance on innovation development, to social innovation activities hand-in-hand with citizens, ENoLL members - individually and as a network - provide innovation support and development services for all actors.

As such, ENoLL is well placed to act as a platform for best practice exchange, learning and support, and Living Lab international project development.

Evaluation Process

To ensure high-value added exchanges within the network and quality outputs from ENoLL certified Living Labs, Accepted membership or Accepted to Grow membership is limited to those organizations able to demonstrate the consistent use of a Living Lab approach.

As such, ENoLL Living Labs undergo a structural and methodological quality assessment on their maturity as an innovation ecosystem. This seal of quality makes ENoLL Living Labs the global standard on user-driven innovation.

Complete applications are evaluated by 3 experts. These 3 evaluators are selected from a pool of long-standing Living Lab practitioners from the network. Their selection is done to ensure geographic and thematic diversity and avoid any conflict of interest.

Examples of non-eligible applications

- Template not used or severely misused
- Missing Living Lab legal body (host organization)
- Missing name or VAT/registration number
- Missing Living Lab manager contact details
- Missing host organization responsible contact details
- Application exceeding the length of 12 pages with 10pt font (Arial).
- Missing signed Living lab Stakeholder letters

Stages

- Submission of completed form
- Payment of evaluation fee (€300)
- Eligibility check by Secretariat
- Review of application by Evaluation Committee and request of further support material if necessary
- Applicant receives evaluation report about the application

03

Evaluation Criteria

ENoLL Living Labs are not limited to a specific region, type of organization, area of expertise, or group of people.

As such, the evaluation criteria takes into account this great diversity by looking at a set of key indicators within 6 common chapters of mature ENoLL Living Labs.

This assessment process helps make ENoLL a dynamic platform for quality exchange on best practices related to Living Labs.

- Organization: this first chapter deals with the organization, management and governance of your living lab
- Users & Reality: this chapter evaluates how your living lab is dealing with all different kinds of user engagement & how your living lab processes are deployed in real life settings.
- Resources: this chapter describes the different available resources of your living lab (infrastructures, materials...) and their potential use/service.
- Openness: this chapter looks at your approach in general towards open innovation and the inclusion of all the groups of the Quadruple helix.
- Value: this chapter looks at the outcomes of your living lab and how they create values and benefits for all the involved stakeholders of your living lab.
- Business Model & plans for the future: this chapter evaluates your current business model and accessibility to funding and looks at your SWOT analysis & strategic plans for the future to investigate the sustainability of your living lab.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1 - Can the application submission deadline be extended?

Applications can be submitted all year long. As soon as the deadline for a certain Application Block is passed, the incoming application will be evaluated during the following application block. Therefore deadline extensions are no longer necessary.

Q2 - We would like to join the network but we do not feel we would pass the evaluation process at this time. How can we be involved with ENoLL?

In preparation for their evaluation, some organizations take part in the "Learning Lab" before the Open Living Lab Days conference. This is a specially designed training day for starting and mature Living Labs on theoretical and practical aspects of running a Living Lab. More information at <https://enoll.org/about-us/learning-lab/>

Q3- What types of membership are there?

Three types of membership are in place:

- Accepted to grow membership: €800 for 1 year (incl. costs for re-evaluation)
- Adherent membership: €500/year (excl. €300 for re-evaluation after 3 years)
- Effective membership: €5000/year (incl. €300 for re-evaluation after 3 years)
